

About Our Videos

Videos may be taken for the period of their intended use and must be returned promptly. They may be picked up from the Ministry Resource Center or mailed Library Rate to your church or home. A label with postage affixed will be enclosed for their return. In lieu of membership fees and postage deposits, AVRL will bill parishes for the cost of the materials checked out if the videos are not returned by the due date.

AVRL . . .

. . . is a video media resource for Christian Formation jointly owned and managed by four judicatories in the Delaware Valley.

Each judicatory determines how they will relate to AVRL by way of membership and use by their congregations.

The AVRL collection of more than 2,000 videos is housed at the Ministry Resource Center on the first floor of Church House, 240 South Fourth Street, in the historic area at Fourth and Locust Streets in Philadelphia.

Member churches may peruse the collection here and take out the resources from 10 am to 3 pm daily.

Resources may also be requested by phone, fax, or email and mailed to your church or home.
